“For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ

July 2020

Dear Friends, Pastors and Co-investors in the City of the Great King,

In May and June we saw a total of 65 people who trusted Christ as their Savior in soul winning activities. Praise God that amid the coronavirus restrictions on daily living, our bus captains, Sunday school teachers and others are still out there visiting their people and telling others about Jesus. We have not been able to do baptism since the beginning of April when the government closed all churches and places of worship. Fines and jail-time have been threatened upon anyone who breaks the law. They talk about a new normal these days, but I think it is the new abnormal. Is the return of the Lord very, very near? I believe it is. In fact, I believe it is so close that it is at the door – Rev. 3:20. We must work while it is day. Press on for the King’s business requires it. Faithful to the end, that is our course.

Our country has been on lockdown going into four months. It is not easy, especially with no church, except for online services for those who are able to watch. Our people are feeling the heat. Many have limited income because of limited jobs. We have helped the most needy during this time with basic food items and groceries. Added to all of this, the result of the country’s national election since March is still not final. The present government refuses to leave office. Both sides are claiming voter fraud. There is political wrangling and racial tension ongoing. All government offices, private and commercial businesses, banks, the post office, the international airport operate on various levels of restrictions. Facemasks, hand sanitizer, and washing are required for the use of public transportation, entering private and commercial businesses including restaurants, grocery stores, banks and such. Restaurants are not open to dine-in, but we can go in to order out. Let’s not forget the social distancing. All this has limited our economy and life as it used to be. What is the thing we need the most this minute? Prayer! It is not the only thing we can do, but it is the greatest thing.

In all of this, we are not defeated, but are moving on as God’s people (see II Cor. 4:8-11). Many of you have collected and sent extra money to your missionaries. Thank you. Where would we be if it were not for you and our God? Jesus sees and He will bless you. Thank you for your kindness and generosity to us.

In His triumphant love and resurrection (Ps.25:5; I Thess. 2:4),
