Dear friends in Christ,

May, 2021

Teresa is an elderly lady who has been a Catholic all her life, and a motivating and dedicated leader of a group of Catholic ladies. She worshipped idols, recited prayers, burned candles, adored Mary, and prayed to past Catholic leaders known as "saints" in her context. Someone shared with her the plan of salvation. She understood that forgiveness of sin and eternal life are not earned by good works. Her life story is amazing, her thirst for God's Word is refreshing, and her humility is challenging.

She is unguarded in her speech, meaning she just shares her inner heart with you. She does not try to look good and is as sincere as you can find. I do not think she knows how to fake it if she wanted. In other words, she is not into impressing people. Teresa cannot get enough of her Bible and is so ashamed of what she taught for years. She knew tradition and how to do rituals and ceremonies, but nothing about the Bible. She never read it. Even the simplest and most known parts were new to her.

Please keep her in your prayers. Two to three times a week she will call or message her Bible questions to us. This must thrill the heart of our Savior. She wants to know Him better every day.

Our next radio station project is in the city of Ayabaca. We are working on securing a property for our tower and housing unit for transmission. We have already presented our request to purchase property to the rural local community. We now wait for them meet and hopefully vote to grant our request. This sounds strange, but the properties are owned by a cooperative of farmers, and they all have a vote. The next step is to build the station on site and get electric power to it. It takes time.

The Lord has supplied all we need for the Ayabaca project. We have the primary and backup transmitters and other supplies are ready and waiting.

I taught a course on the book of Judges with a special focus on chapters 13-16. (God in the Life of Samson). We studied God's Word for 2 ½ hours for three evenings a week for three weeks. The invitation came from a pastor in the city of Ica. We had others from Lima and Trujillo join us for the study. I loved every minute of it.

I have also been teaching a course (The Christian Home) for our Seminary in Trujillo. It is a challenge and helps me in my preparation for a future radio conference. That subject will be on dating and holiness.

During these days, I try to dedicate a lot of my time to a book I am writing. We want to print it and have it available for a conference on dating. There is a great need in helping young people to make godly choices that affect their lives for years to come. Pray that the Lord will help me in the preparation for the conference and book.

For Christ's glory,
Stanley and Ruth Templeton
