Psalms 126: 5-6 "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Dear Supporting Friends and Churches:

Ministry partners greeting in the name of our wonderful Savior Jesus Christ. What a joy and honor it is to serve a mighty Savior. He is to be praised above all.

It is such a blessing to be able to go house to house and witness for our Savior and invite them to church.

In one of the houses we visited a real rough man came to the door. We invited him to church but he said that he never went to church. In the meanwhile a little girl about eight years old came out. I asked her if she would like to go to church, we give candy every service and sometimes we take the children to the park. Her grandfather said she will not go to church. The little girl was so happy when I invited her to church. If I had known the little girl was his granddaughter I would have made this man promise me he would go to church, as a granddaughter can make a grandfather do anything.

To make a long story short, next service weekend they all came to church and praise the Lord they all got saved.

As Vacation Bible School is coming soon we pray we will be able to lead many children and some of their parents to Christ as we do every Vacation Bible School. Please pray we will have enough money to be able to have at least four different Vacation Bible Schools.

May God bless each of you.
