ARTICLE III. DOCTRINE

Section 1

We recognize the Baptist Faith and Message (1965, 2000) as our statement of doctrine with the exception of the description of scriptural officers in (VI. THE CHURCH). We recognize the Pastor and Elders as scriptural officers.

MARRIAGE, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY

God wonderfully and unchangeably creates each person in the mother's womb as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God (Gen. 1:26-27) Rejection of one's own biological sex is a rejection of the image of God within that person.

The term "marriage" has only one meaning: the uniting of one biological man and one biological woman in a single, exclusive union, as set forth in Scripture. (Gen 2:18-25) God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a biological man and a biological woman who are married to each other. (1 Cor. 6:18; 7:2-5; Heb. 13:4) God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a biological man and a biological woman. Intimate sexual activity outside of such a marriage is sinful.

God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ. (Acts 3:19-21; Romans 10:9-10; 1 Cor. 6:9-11)

Every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect and dignity. (Mark 12:28-31; Luke 6:31) Hateful and harassing behavior or attitudes directed toward any individual are to be repudiated and are not in accord with Scripture or with the doctrines of this church.

ARTICLE IV. POLITY AND RELATIONSHIP

Jesus Christ is the head of the church; the true source of all that the church is and does, and His glory is to be the objective of every act, function, and motive of the body, both individually and corporately. It is before Him that all other leadership must bow. He communicates his will for the church through His word, the Bible. He gives additional guidance by means of the specific leading of the Holy Spirit who indwells the heart of each believer. He calls forth leaders for the church to whom He gives responsibility for the oversight of the church body and the shepherding of its members. The government of this church is vested in the body of believers who compose its membership and leadership. Persons meeting the membership requirements and making a written request for membership shall constitute the membership. All internal groups created and empowered by the church shall exist to further the purpose of the church. They will be accountable to the church. As an autonomous local church, this church is not subject to the control of any ecclesiastical body. However, it relates to and cooperates with (remove) the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the Texas Fellowship of Cowboy Churches and other entities of like faith in sharing the gospel with the whole world. If an entity this church cooperates with ceases to agree with or support the mission of this church, this church reserves the right to disassociate with that entity.

ARTICLE V. ORDINANCES

SECTION I. BAPTISM

A church is understood to be a fellowship of baptized believers brought together to carry out the work of Jesus Christ.
