

March 24, 2020

Good Morning Lexington Baptist Family,

As we continue dealing with all the impacts of the Coronavirus, I want to keep you updated on the latest LBC response:

- Our Livestream worship each Sunday at 10:30am is reaching many people and we continue to tweak it as we go along. The viewing problems that some people experienced last Sunday are being fixed, but at the bottom of the Livestream page on our website there are three different links you may use to watch our Livestream: 1. through our website itself (lexingtonbaptist.org/live-stream); 2. through our church Facebook page; and 3. directly through our Livestream host (livestream.com). If one link doesn't work for you, try another.
- Our new Worship Pastor, Tim Bottoms, will officially start March 30 but is already meeting with us online for planning purposes.
- Many ministries are moving online, and our staff is working hard at providing continuing contact with all our people in ministry and encouragement. Most of us are working from home but the church office is still open with a skeleton staff.

Don't forget that our church website (lexingtonbaptist.org) has the newest information so please be sure to check in on a regular basis. On the website you'll also find two important buttons. The first is for PRAYER. Our heart is always for ministry, so if you or someone you know needs special prayer, we want to lift them up to the Lord. Please click on that button (you may also call our church prayer line at 803.808.7729 or email pray@lexingtonbaptist.org) and let us know how we can help.

The second button is for GIVING. This button will take you to our online giving platform (lexingtonbaptist.org/give). You may also give by dropping your offering by our church office during business hours or mailing your offering to:

Lexington Baptist Church
308 East Main Street
Lexington, SC 29072

The Bible directs us in times of anxiety about the material necessities of life—like so many are in right now—to “Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.” (Matthew 6:33) Let us as church family continue living with that promise!

In Christ,

Pastor Mike