

HOPE CENTER

We are in need of re-stocking our pantry at the Hope Center. If you could purchase any of the items below on your next grocery run and place in the bins provided at the piano and organ side entrances, we would greatly appreciate it! We will leave the boxes out through the end of March.

- Canned meats (chicken, Spam, tuna)
- Canned soups
- Bags of rice or dry beans
- Boxed macaroni & cheese
- Jelly
- Oatmeal (instant or Quick Oats)
- Velveeta cheese (1 pound box)

ANNIE ARMSTRONG
EASTER OFFERING®
FOR NORTH AMERICAN MISSIONS

Faithfully sharing the gospel with others is our call in the Great Commission. To broaden our mission and grow the kingdom of God, we must support missionaries who are worthy of our investment of praying, sending, giving, and going. Contributing to the offering is a great way to impact and increase His kingdom. Please prayerfully consider what you can give.

OBC's goal: $4,500 Rec'd. to date: $2,190

SAVE THE DATES

PRESCHOOL AND KIDS MINISTRY

Kids Praise & Worship is open to Kindergarten through 5th grade students and will be meeting in the gym from 6:00—6:30 PM on Wednesdays.

Kids Discipleship hour is for Preschoolers ages 3-5 and school-aged children. Discipleship hour will begin at 6:30 and end at 7:30. (Preschoolers in the CLP building and school-aged in the gym.)

Sunday Morning GROWgroup for Students

"A Visual Theology Guide to the Bible" each Sunday morning, in the Chapel at 9:15 AM.

All Middle School and High School students are invited to see how all scripture fits together, why the authors wrote each book, and what all of it means for your life today! For the time being all 6th-12th will meet together. Multiple groups will form as attendance permits and we will move back upstairs in the very near future.
