Built by God: Seeing God's Hand in the Life of our Church

Psalms 145 is David's last psalm in the book of Psalms. It's an incredible psalm of praise. This month, we are focusing on how our church family has been built on Jesus. When you think of how God is moving in this church & setting it up for growth and a larger impact in this family, how can you not be filled with praise? Our God is so good. He is so great! In this lesson, we'll look at this psalm and answer the question: For what should we praise God?
