HEBREW LETTER OF THE MONTH OF TAMMUZ

Tzadi is the PIZZA letter of the alef-bet. Tzadi is the letter in Ivrit that makes the same sound as the middle part of pizza. Tzadi sort of sounds like a English T and Z together. Tzadi makes a sound that is a lot of fun, and the words that start with the letter Tzadi are fun to say. Look at the pictures below and read them aloud. Sometimes if there is someone we know who is righteous and does their best to keep Torah, we call them a Tzadik (Tzah-deek). Many people think that a Tzadi sort of looks like someone on their knees praising G-D. Neat huh? Hebrew is read from right to left, opposite of English.

Show them the picture. Trace the letter with your finger and say “Alef” then take their index finger and gently trace over the letter, repeat.

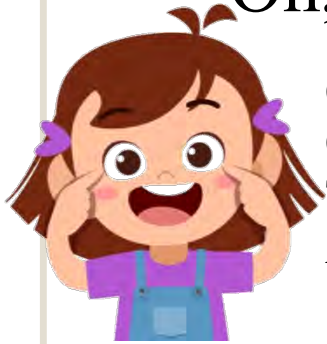

צדקה (Tza-dak-ah) charity

צל (tzel) shadow

Oh, Be Careful

Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
There's a Father up above
And He's looking down in love
So, be careful little eyes what you see

Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Our Abba's up above
And He's leading us with love
So, be careful little feet where you go

Oh, be careful little ears what you hear
Oh, be careful little ears what you hear
The Father's up above
And He's hearing us with love
So, be careful little ears what you hear

Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Yeshua is above
And He's speaking out His love
So, be careful little mouth what you say

Oh, be careful little hands what you do
Oh, be careful little hands what you do
Our Father's up above and He's showing us His love
So, be careful little hands
what you do
