NOTES

The first goal is to approach all scripture with humility and prayer.

Rabbi's Drash:

In this week's Parsha Tazria in chapter 13 it says:

2 "If someone develops on his skin a swelling, scab or bright spot which could develop into the disease tzara'at, he is to be brought to Aharon the Kohen.

In chapter 13 we find over and over that the Kohen (Priest) will examine the person with Tzara'at. It is very interesting that even though it appears that each time a different statement is made about the person being clean the person still had to be looked at and examined by the Kohen.

As believers we have a perfect Kohen in Yeshua. We may have things in our life (sins) that make us dirty or unacceptable and may even require that we be separated from the body of Messiah, until the Kohen examines us and finds us clean.

Just as in this parsha it is not up to those around us to determine our cleanliness nor is it up to us personally to determine. It is only up to the Kohen HaGadol to proclaim us clean. Thankfully the offering of Yeshua gave us all that is needed to make us clean, and through Yeshua we can all be proclaimed clean.

If you do not have volunteers -ask for a volunteer to lead the pledge of allegiance. Not so Secret point mark with a star ★ next to name on sign in sheet.

Ask one of them to lead the Shema? Not so Secret point

If anyone is misbehaving, ask the entire class. “What is the first rule in Shabbat School?” They should answer “Love your neighbour as yourself.”

Say to the offender “Sir/Ma’am, are you showing love for your neighbours?”

Give them a moment to respond and then tell them “This is your only warning, if you choose to disturb the class again _____ will escort you out, and you will have to explain your behaviour to your parents.

Understood?” wait for them to respond with a “Yes Ma’am”, or “Yes Rebbitzen”. Follow through. (This part is the hardest for all of us.). Anyone that must be escorted out will lose all their points for the day.

Please use Sir and Ma’am and expect them to be equally respectful.

Explain to yeladim that the teachers are responsible for:

- Helping you understand Torah
- Teaching you Hebrew and prayers
- Listening to your hopes, and goals
- Helping your team meet its goals
- Helping you understand who you are as a Messianic believer
- Helping you grow closer to G-D.

Explain to yeladim that they are responsible for:

- Coming to Shabbat School prepared to learn
- Getting with in place for the “Opening Ceremony”
- Being attentive and curious and asking lots of questions
- Being respectful and participating in activities and discussions.
- Keeping track of your memory verses and activity sheets
