Evangelist Jonathan Conrathe is the Founder and Director of Mission24, an inter-denominational Christian ministry that burns with a vision to equip the Church and reach the world for Christ. Mission24 also encompasses "LifeLink24", the mercy arm of the ministry, committed to inspiring hope through love, faith and education.

Biography

Jonathan has seen in excess of 264,500 people come to Jesus Christ over the last 32 years in 52 countries, and 1000's of believers from various denominations and networks equipped to minister the Gospel with signs following.

The Lord continues to faithfully confirm His word with regular healings, miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit. The fruit of his ministry has also been seen in the planting of new churches in Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Mexico, UK, Philippines, France, Ukraine, and India, and in the raising up of new evangelists and ministries through the Mission24 School of Ministry, and personal mentoring.

Jonathan is sent out with the prayer backing of Kingsgate Community Church, Peterborough, his home church, and ministers widely in missions around the world, as well as to churches and leaders across a variety of denominations and networks in the UK and overseas. He is also a broadcaster on UCB & Premier Radio and has appeared on a number of interviews for GodTV, TBN, BBC TV and Radio, RevelationTV, and The Miracle Channel.

He is also an author of several books including "Radical Christianity", and "The Power Partnership", and is happily married to Elaine, with three boys, Nathan, Josh and Ben."
