Biography

Sarah had a powerful encounter with Jesus and came to know Him when she was chronically sick, whilst listening to Billy Graham on the radio. Having suffered from M.E. and its symptoms since childhood, she had been used to a life of illness, which prevented her from following her dreams of becoming a nurse. During the years that followed her salvation, God began to systematically heal and set her free from every symptom as she researched the healing scriptures of the Bible.

Her passion is to see others come to know Jesus as Saviour and Healer, through her ministry "Healing 2 the Nations". Sarah travels across the UK and around the world; teaching and ministering in churches, conferences, ladies and youth meetings, whilst releasing a powerful anointing in the "laying on of hands".

Sarah regularly partners with Mission24, leading women's ministry and equipping the churches to receive and minister healing through the power of the Holy Spirit and encouraging believers to embrace their identity in Christ.

Sarah has two daughters with her husband Mark, and is based near Manchester, UK.
