Alistair and Heather are Mission24 Trustees.

Biography

Alastair & Heather have been involved in many missions over the years, establishing new and diverse opportunities to train, equip and establish many in Kingdom vision. They have known Jonathan for a little over 32 years.

Heather has been involved on many boards and as a Business Director for Kahanah Care, establishing and helping to heal many broken men & women with complex needs and challenging mental health issues. She has also been an advisor and councillor for Pregnancy Crisis, supporting couples and individuals through the tragic loss of their baby.

Alistair and Heather both have a passion for mission, moving in the prophetic and signs and wonders through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Alistair also has experience on a variety of different boards ranging from mission to local eldership at the vibrant and growing 'Rediscover Church' in Exeter. He has also established the Kingdom-business ministry, training many across different nations to be successful in conducting business scripturally whilst having a voice for the kingdom.

Together, they have been Trustees for an organisation that rescues trafficked women, providing protection and help through programmes and prayer ministry with the ultimate aim of seeing them released into their intended destiny .
