

“Daniel’s Greatest Hits:
The One About the Dream”
Small Group Questions
Week of June 19, 2022

Icebreaker:

What is your favorite food to eat off the barbeque? Do you prefer propane or charcoal? Why? What are some positive memories or stories you have of your father or father figures from your life?

Discussion Questions:

1. What experience do you have studying biblical prophecy?

Has it been positive or negative?

What have you been able to glean from your studies?

2. What are some of the ways God chooses to speak to you?

How would you react to prophetic visions like Daniel was given?

What sort of burden did he carry for God’s people?

What are the burdens you carry for fellow believers and non-believers today?

3. Read Daniel 7:9-14 together.

4. The above passage frames the future hope of both Daniel’s time and our own. How would it have encouraged the exiled and scattered Jewish people of Daniel’s time?

How ought it encourage us?

5. Talk through the various national and global conflicts, struggles, and difficulties present today. How can Christians demonstrate and speak hope in a compassionate, thoughtful, and biblically centered way?

6. What is one area in your life where you need to be reminded of God’s hope?

How can your small group support and encourage you to remain hopeful?
