First Corinthians, Living Love When We Disagree

by Melissa Spoelstra

Tuesday Night: 7:00 - 8:45PM Room 2209/2212

Facilitated by Denise Roberts

Relationships are messy. Sometimes we struggle to get along, especially when there is disagreement. Often we find ourselves divided--even as Christians. How can we work out our differences and disagreements with humility and grace, always showing the love of Christ, while still remaining true to what we believe?

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians living in Corinth about this very thing.

The cultural backdrop of Corinth was even more overtly sinful than our culture today, yet Paul boldly encouraged the Corinthian Christians not to ridicule one another or outsiders but to work together to show the love of Christ.

Join this dynamic group as we use this Bible study as our foundation for a deep and enriching conversation about 1 Corinthians. We'll study the passages and grapple with how what Paul writes to these early believers resonates, convicts, guides, and encourages believers today. Her Bible study is 6 weeks. We won't necessarily stick to that pace, instead, choosing to let our learning take place at the pace we need it to. Please purchase your own copy of the participant workbook HERE.

Esther, It's Tough Being A Woman

by Beth Moore

Wednesday Night: 6:30 - 8:00PM Room 2203/2208

Facilitated by Debbie Herzig and Sandy Hublei.

See how the story of Esther is applicable in our lives today. The Old Testament story of Esther is a profile in courage and contains many modern parallels for today's overloaded and stressed woman. Esther, while a queen, lived as an outsider in a hostile environment. Women will learn strong lessons of faith, providence, and hope to equip them to live courageously "for such a time as this."

The Armor of God

by Priscilla Shirer

Sunday Evening: 5:00 - 7:00PM Meets in Room 2204/2205

Facilitated by Patricia Dahlman

All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams, your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you're tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, this study is for you.

The Enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. The Armor of God, more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory.
