

1. Christianity was built on the eye witness testimony of others. How has have you experienced this in your own life as a believer.
2. Heaven will be an immense gathering of saints from every culture on the planet. Have you ever considered this truth when thinking about heaven?
3. We do not like the idea of “Tribulation” because we like things comfortable. How can tribulation make us stronger?
4. On Sunday we celebrated the Saints that have gone before us. How have you celebrated that with in your family.
5. “Memory is the currency that connects those in the past and present to those in the future” How is that true?