

1. How have you seen irony recently in your life?
2. What would happen if we asked God for his perspective on any given situation? What would things look like for you?
3. Palms/Passion Sunday is a reminder that there is risk when we stand with a Jesus. What does that mean?
4. How does the way Jesus entered Jerusalem challenge your own view of a king?