

Communion Prep Team

Sunday Serve Team

Summary:

The Communion Prep Team is responsible for preparing and setting out communion prior to our Sunday gatherings. Teams are made up of an individual or married couple serving together.

Commitment:

- Serve one Sunday a month from 8:15a- 9am & 10:30a-10:45a. Team members are able to attend the first gathering at 9am.
- One year commitment. Reevaluate interest in September of each year.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Responsible to prepare communion each week by filling juice cups and bread trays before first gathering (step-by-step checklist provided).
- Responsible to refill juice and bread trays before second gathering.
- Pray for those taking communion during preparation time.
- Responsible to shoulder tap others to serve on the team.

Experience:

- Must be a follower of Jesus and someone who has a track record of connecting, serving, and giving at Seaside.
- Minimal training is required. New team members will shadow a current team member for a Sunday and then be ready to begin serving immediately after that.
