

Rules & Regulations

- Everyone going to camp must attend all Bible studies, activities, and services. NO EXCEPTIONS!
- Live by the Golden Rule. Absolutely no practical jokes. No bullying. Treat others with respect.
- No knives or weapons of any kind.
- Absolutely no types of cell phones, MP3 players, IPADS or Tablets, Laptops or any type of electronic devices are allowed. The only exceptions are alarm clocks and digital cameras. (Please make note that we are not allowing cell phones due to the distraction they provide. If you want your student to call, they can call with an adult's phone at any time.)
- No excessive public displays of affection.
- No leaving your dorm after lights out.
- SBU rules, no moving furniture or fireworks on campus. Any damage done to SBU will be paid by the student.
- No skateboards or in-line skates.
- There will be a $25 lost key charge.
- All prescription medication that your student needs help administering needs to be turned in upon arrival at church Monday morning.
- Appropriate, God honoring, and modest attire only. Please take this seriously. If you are unsure, don't bring that clothing item. No under garments showing. Girls-no bikinis. Guy-no Speedos. Guys need to wear a shirt except in the pool. No inappropriate sayings/slogans on clothing. Leaders have the right to ask you to change.
- There are five (5) things that will get you sent home from Camp Revolution at the parent's expense:
 - Possession of drugs, tobacco, vaping products, or alcohol
 - Boys --- in Girls' dorms
 - Girls --- in Boys' dorms
 - Stealing
 - Leaving SBU property

*Each camper and adult are expected to approach camp with an attitude of representing yourself, your church and your family in a way that honors God.

We are going to have a great time at camp, and a time of spiritual renewal. Please be praying about what God wants to do in your life.*
