Preparedness Questionnaire

1. Provide a brief account of your spiritual journey.
2. Briefly describe your interest in pursuing entrance into the Nona Sending Program.
3. Describe your current relationship with the LORD.
4. How do you engage in spiritual disciplines, particularly on a daily basis?
5. Explain your own understanding of your motivations in pursuing cross-cultural ministry overseas (or locally). Include the following in your response.

Why do you want to work in cross-cultural ministry?

How long have you been sensing or actively following this calling?

Why type of ministry do you plan to pursue and what is your sending agency of choice?

6. Evaluate your gifting, strengths, and weaknesses.

Explain how these fit into cross-cultural ministry overseas. Include the following in your response:

In what work environments do you thrive and which are not a good fit for your gifts and personality?

What have you learned about yourself in previous cross-cultural experiences, especially in how your gifts fit with cross-cultural ministry?

How has God uniquely gifted and designed you to minister in a cross-cultural context?

7. Briefly describe the biblical basis of missions.
8. What role do you want Nona Church to play in your journey and ministry?
What are your expectations from Nona Church?
9. What do you expect to be some of your primary fears, challenges, and concerns in both preparation for ministry and long-term ministry?
