

Try This: Exercises that Will Fuel Your Faith
7.05.20

1. What was encouraging or challenging for you in today's sermon?
2. Matt mentioned a quote from Don Whitney explaining that many people are engaged in church ministry and worship but show very little growth or spiritual maturity due to a lack of commitment to learning? Do you think this is true? Why or why not?
3. What is your past experience with learning and education? How has it shaped the way you view learning today?
4. Three necessary features to the discipline of learning are 1. Intentionality, 2. Life-long commitment, and 3. Application. What are your strengths and weaknesses in being an intentional, life-long learner?
5. How can seeing Jesus as your Rabbi help grow a new commitment to the discipline of learning?
6. In what ways could being committed to the discipline of learning grow you as a disciple-maker?