

Tough Love:
God is Speaking

1. What was your primary takeaway from Sunday's sermon?
2. Tom asked, "If God were to speak to you, would you listen?" How would you answer that question? What would be the evidence for your answer?
3. What would life be like if God didn't speak to his people?
4. God declares in Malachi 1:2 that He has been loving his people. They respond by challenging this statement for proof. What is the evidence that God loves you?
5. What causes people (us) to refuse the truth of God's love for them (us)?
6. Why do you think that the prophecy of Malachi begins with God's declaration of His love? How belief in God's love set the right foundation for life in this world?
