

Tough Love, pt. 8
Malachi 2:17, 3:13-18

1. What was your primary take away or challenge from this morning's sermon?
2. Regarding God's accusation against Israel (Malachi 2:17), what are some examples of present day applications or similarities? What evil has been relabeled good?
3. In our culture, calling evil good is typically subtle and not flagrant or glaring. What are some common subtle signals that we may be redefining evil as good?
4. Read Psalm 73. What is Asaph struggling with? How does it relate to Malachi 3?
5. What was the turning point for Asaph? What can we learn from him in our own frustrations and discouragement?
