KENNY LAMM TO SERVE AS INTERIM MUSIC MINISTER

As you know, Rev. Rob Miller will be retiring from his position as Minister of Music and Worship on June 16th. Kenny Lamm, senior consultant for the Worship and Music Team at the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will serve as interim Music Minister for our church, until this position is filled. He will lead all aspects of the music program, as will the person who is named as replacement. Rev. Lamm is a frequent worship clinician and guest worship leader.

We would also like to thank Chris White for 12 years of service as Contemporary Worship Leader. Chris has agreed to move into the role of Director of Media and Arts. Through the use of various media outlets such as graphics, websites, social media platforms, videos, and potentially even podcasts, Chris will have the task of helping us as a church to communicate the gospel story in ways we have not been able to do previously.
