All members were mailed a sample ballot for officer nominations, a summary of the budget, and other materials. RE nominee, Robert Null, has a short bio available in the narthex. Please note, the budget that was mailed had an error. Corrected budgets are available on the narthex tables and will be emailed to members.

Budget Q/A • June 12

In anticipation of the annual congregational meeting, the finance committee is organizing Q/A times to answer any questions about the budget, which was sent to the congregation and copies are available in the narthex. If you have any questions about the budget, we invite you to attend this Q/A session on June 12 at 9:15 a.m. (during the Sunday school hour) in room 240. (This is where the Ecclesiastes class met during the Spring semester.) No registration necessary.

Whether a single, couple, or family, we would love to have you join us for a visitor luncheon being hosted downstairs immediately following the morning service on Sunday, July 17th. No cost, and no need to bring anything - the meal will be catered. Just sign-up via the church app, call the church office, or send an email to henry@proclamation.org to register your attendance at this luncheon by July 10th. Please note any dietary restrictions when you register.

Ushers Needed

We are in need of more ushers to collect offering, greet and hand out bulletins on a rotating basis on Sunday mornings. If interested, speak with Mike Martin. (martinme@aol.com)

AV Volunteers Needed

Each week, a team of 4-6 people work together to meet our audio and video needs. They are looking for more volunteers. Have interest, but hesitant because of lack of experience? We can teach you. HIM WE PROCLAIM Proclamation is a Bible-centered, Christ-focused, confessional Presbyterian church serving the western suburbs of Philadelphia. We are convinced the ordinary means of grace—the Word, prayer, sacraments, and fellowship—are the primary means God uses to convert and grow His people into conformity with His Son. Toward that end, we are committed to:

- Expositional preaching of the inerrant Word of God
- Reverent and joyful worship of our glorious Triune God
- Fellowship with God in prayer as we intercede for His kingdom to come
- Redemptive community within the body of Christ
- Cultivating a heart of compassion for the lost in our community and around the world

THE GOOD GARDEN

1. The Man, in the Gar - den, once walked with the Lord
2. A sim - ple com - mand to our co - ve - nant head
3. One day in the Gar - den of end - less de - light,
4. Yet in the for - sak - ing of God's ho - ly law,
5. How can we dare doubt then the good - ness of God?
6. Now Lord, we im - plore you, and hum - bly we pray, in faith, love, and pu - ri - ty, joy un - de - terred.

was giv - en that he might, the Lord, learn to dread.
there fell on our race a cold, dark, dead - ly blight.
our fore - fa - ther Ad - am sal - va - tion fore - saw.
For in that sad day, when with sin we were shod,
that your Ho - ly Spi - rit might teach us each day;

For in that good Gar - den where A - dam did dwell,
O - be - dience would bring pro - mised life with - out end,
The Ser - pent de - ceived and caused A - dam to fall,
For in that grim mo - ment, when all good seemed lost,
we should have been pun - ished with un - end - ing strife;
to right - ful - ly fear your do - min - ion and wrath,

the Lord God Al - might - y had made all things well.
pro - tect - ing his soul from the cur - ses of sin.
and, in his first sin, we did sin, one and all.
the Lord gave his prom - ise to pay the full cost.
in - stead we were prom - ised the gift of new life.
and walk in your prom - is - es, foll - wing your path.
