Bible Lesson

Week 3 : Judge's Score

Scripture: Daniel 5, The Writing on the Wall

In certain sports, athletes have to wait on the judge's score to know who won. King Belshazzar lived life to please himself and not God and was judged accordingly. We should learn from his mistake and seek to live life to glorify God.

Bottom-line: Kids will learn that whatever we do, should be done for God's glory.

For this craft, print the page with the picture of the king and the wall and cut in half. Then put a page (which contains the words Mene Mene Tekel Parsin) under the first page so you can use it as a pattern. Using a white crayon or wax candle stick, write the words "MENE MENE TEKEL PARSIN" in the box. Make sure you press really hard.

Tell the story until you get to verse 5. Before reading verse 5 (the hand appears and writes on the wall), tell kids that you forgot to put color on their pages and need help finishing that part. Tell the kids that they need to first paint the wall (the rectangle) and that we will paint the king later. As they watercolor paint the wall, letters and words begin to appear! After they have finished, finish reading and telling the rest of the Bible story.
