What is Shema?

For thousands of years, Jewish people have daily prayed the "Shema" or other known as Deuteronomy 6:4-5. It's a prayer that calls God's people to respond to the divine love with faithfulness and devotion. The next 6 weeks will explore the Hebrew words contained in the "Shema" to better explain its overall theme.

Family Discussion

- What was your favorite part of the message today? What's one thing you learned
- Why is God calling us to listen ?
- Read Deuteronomy 6:4-5. Do you feel that you love God with your entire being as explained in this verse. If not what part do you feel struggles a bit?
- Who is the best listener in your family. ?
- Pray together as family, take turns and pray about at least one thing on your heart. Ask God to help you hear and listen more to His Word and His voice.
