What is Shema?

For thousands of years, Jewish people have daily prayed the "Shema" or other knowns as Deuteronomy 6:4-5. It's a prayer that calls God's people to respond to the divine love with faithfulness and devotion. The next 6 weeks will explore the Hebrew words contained in the "Shema" to better explain it's overall theme.

Family Discussion

- What is the Hebrew word for soul?
- What is the meaning of soul according the Word of God?
- Do you believe that you love God with all your "soul"?
- Pray together as family, take turns and pray about at least one thing on your heart. Ask God to make you more aware of loving Him with all your soul so you can walk more in Him.
