- What was your favorite part of the message today? What's one thing you learned?
- How good would a spy be if they didn't have any special gear or gadgets? How strong do you think you would be throughout everything that happens in your life without any help from God or others?
- What's your answer to today's big question? (How do you face your struggles?)
- Read Ephesians 6:10-11 NIV. God's truth, righteousness, peace, faith, and salvation are compared to armor in this Scripture. How do you think those things are like armor? And, what can they protect you from?
- We're learning about the invisible battle between good and evil. How does it make you feel to know that God has provided you with gear to help you fight evil using His power? Which piece of gear do you think will help you the most with whatever you're living through right now: truth, righteousness (which just means making right and godly choices), peace, faith, or salvation?
- Pray together as family, take turns and pray about at least one thing on your heart.
