

WEEK 2 - Outer Gate

Exodus 27:16 “And for the gate of the court shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.”

John 14:6 “Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life, no man comes unto the Father but through me”

DID YOU KNOW? - FUN FACTS

- Did you know that in Heaven will also be a gate though which the righteous will enter just like with the Tabernacle.

DISCUSSION

- The Tabernacle was build in the middle of the dessert. Why did the Tabernacle have a fence around it and a gate? Why wasn't it just open for everyone?
- What picture did God want to show us with the entrance having 3 openings?
- What does the entrance mean to us today ? How can we use it to understand our approach into God's presence?
