Looking Up

Worship (15-20 mins)

Worship is our way of rolling out the red carpet for God. You can think of worship like an elevator; it's a practical way to take us from the messy ground floor up-to the holy heavenlies. Let's jump into worship and host God's presence here in this place.

Some worship links (with lyrics):

- "Raise a Hallelujah" - Bethel Music

- "Unchanging" - Antioch Music (This is an Antioch Movement song; a movement of church-planting churches that Epicentre is part of. This song could be new to you. Either way, it's a great song that declares how faithful Jesus is.)

Bible Study (20-25 mins)

On Sunday, Pastor John invited us to reflect on the ways 2020 was a training ground that can prepare us for 2022. We want to be a people who say "YES LORD" in all areas of our lives, especially as we trust in Jesus as the Overcoming One. Let's look to scripture to understand more of how we can lean on Jesus as the Overcoming One.

Passage - John 16:16-33 (NIV)

16 Jesus went on to say, "In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me." 17 At this, some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,' and 'Because I am going to the Father'?" 18 They kept asking, "What does he mean by 'a little while'? We don't understand what he is saying."

19 Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me'?" 20 Very truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. 21 A woman giving birth to a child has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world. 22 So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy. 23 In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. 24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.

25 "Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. 26 In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. 27 No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. 28 I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."

29 Then Jesus' disciples said, "Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech. 30 Now we can see that you know all things and that you do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God." 31 "Do you now believe?" Jesus replied. 32 "A time is coming and in fact has come when you will be scattered, each to your own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.

33 "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Questions:

- What's something that stands out to you?
- What can we learn about God?
- What can we learn about people?
- Think back to the ways Jesus has overcome in your life through 2020 and 2021; how has God been shaping me?
- Conscripted: "I am wholly God's. Therefore I will let Him realign and re-tool me for His purposes."
 - How have the ways God that has been shaping you relate to being conscripted?
