Monday Night U

Is back! Beginning April 19th!

- Classes will begin at 6:30pm with only one session (no late session) each Monday night.
- You are invited to come early for coffee and treats at 6:00pm.
- Classes will go six consecutive weeks. The next semester will begin in the September.
- We will meet in the larger spaces in order to socially distance (bring your mask)

Registration will be 6:00pm, the first evening (April 19th), for one of the following classes:

Fearless Faith; Led by Michelle Mordus

Fearless Faith is for students and adults to help become "fearless" about your Christian beliefs, whether it is at the water cooler at work, over dinner with your family, or in a classroom that's hostile to Christianity. You will learn practical and invaluable helps, such as; critical thinking skills, how to respond when challenged, the four most important questions to ask unbelievers, the truth that "it takes more faith to be an Atheist. and more!

The book of James; Led by Amy Miller

This incredible little letter from the New Testament will surely encourage you and certainly challenge you as well. It's about dynamic Christian living and how to practically exercise the wisdom of God in every day circumstances! This is probably one of the most pragmatic books in the Bible to study!

The five languages of Appreciation in the work place; Led by Patti Timbers

Learn the importance and value of giving our appreciation in everyday life. This, of course, will not just benefit your relationships in the work place-but throughout all of life. You will learn how to give genuine appreciation, increase loyalty, reduce cynicism, individualize your own expression of appreciation and more!

Foundations of the Faith pt 2; Led by Pastor Ben Emmons

Continue to discover the foundational precepts of the Christian Faith! Know what and why you believe. Pastor Ben will present a comprehensive overall study of the "basics" to the Christian Faith in a way that is engaging and thought provoking, as well as foundational for any Christ follower!
