This Bible reading plan allows you to read the entire Bible (or just the New Testament) in one year while only reading five times a week. Five readings a week gives room to catch up or take a day off to focus on other Bible reading or spiritual disciplines, and makes daily Bible reading practical and do-able.

The Old Testament readings are placed as chronologically as possible (even the Psalms are read where they belong in Israel's history when feasible, and this is why some prophets appear to be "out of order"). The only exception is Job, probably the oldest book in the Bible, but placed at the end because it is hard to fit elsewhere. The New Testament readings space the Gospels out throughout the year to keep you constantly coming back to the life and teachings of Jesus.

Always do the reading in the order it appears on the schedule. For example, if a reading from Chronicles appears before Kings, read from Chronicles first. Check off each day's reading after you complete it. You will be amazed at how soon you are deep into the year and still reading your Bible regularly! God's blessings rest with those who will read, understand, and live by His Word. May this guide help you to that noble end. "Thy word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" (Psalms 119:105).

HOW TO READ THE BIBLE

One simple Bible studying method is SOAP.

- S for Scripture: Take time to read the Word of God using a daily plan or devotional. Which verse spoke particularly to you? Write it in your journal.
- O for Observation: What caught your attention in what you read? What is God saying to you in this scripture? Write the scripture down in your own words.
- A for Application: Personalize what you read. Ask yourself, "How does this apply to my life right now?" Decide if it is instruction, encouragement, a promise to hold on to, or correction for a particular area of your life. Write down how the scripture can apply to you.
- P for Prayer: Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and to reveal Jesus to you through the scripture, and ask Him to help you apply it. Write down your prayer. Don't forget to write down answers to prayer!

"All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."
