"Jesus Calls the Question" – Mark 8

Bob Evans, Congregational Care Pastor

Mark 8 is a pivotal chapter in Jesus' life. After another large group of people were fed with scant supplies, Jesus takes His disciples into Caesarea Philippi and asks them two critical questions. The second question is decisive: "Who do You say I am?" Everyone alive must answer this question. How do you answer this question? What difference does it make in your life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Mark 8:14-21. Where do you have a hard time connecting the provisions of Jesus to your own life?
2. Peter went from victory (His confession of Jesus as the Christ) to failure ("get behind me Satan") in a matter of moments. What comfort does this provide you about your own imperfect life?
3. Jesus told His disciples he "must" suffer and die. What does it mean to pick up your cross and follow Jesus?
