"Jesus Works Inside Out" – Mark 7
David McNeely, Senior Pastor

Mark draws our attention to the central issue of religion in the first century: replacing God's commands with man's traditions. Jesus encounters three types of people in Mark 7. The first are religious people attempting to change themselves from the outside in. The other two are desperate for change. Jesus transforms them from the inside out.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In what ways do you see others making every effort to change themselves by focusing on the outside (behavior, appearance, public image, etc.)?
2. Share an example of a time you tried to change yourself from the outside in. What were the results?
3. What are some characteristics of people who truly honor God with their mouths and hearts?
4. What stands out to you about the miracles Jesus performed in Mark 7?
