"Jesus Gives and Receives Honor" – Mark 11
David McNeely, Senior Pastor

Mark turns our attention to the cross of Jesus. Some theologians describe Mark's gospel as the passion narrative with a long intro since everything in chapters 11-16 happens in one week. Mark 11 begins with crowds cheering his entry into Jerusalem and ends with the chief priests and scribes trying to challenge Him. In between these events, Jesus teaches an important truth with a fig tree while forcefully drawing people's attention back to the heart of worship.

"Yes I Will"
"The Lord Is My Salvation"
"Holy Holy Holy"
"In Christ Alone"

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why were people so quick to cheer Jesus' entry into Jerusalem? Do you see fans, not followers, of Jesus today?
2. How can we apply lessons from the fig tree to our lives?
3. How does the cleansing of the temple shape your view of Jesus?
4. What can we learn from Jesus' response to the scribes and Pharisees? What meaningless arguments does the American Church engage in?
