Prelude
Welcome
Song	“Raise a Hallelujah”	Praise Team
Song	“For These Reasons”
June/July Confession		“Oceans”
L	Broken as we are from the fragility of our bodies, our minds, our relationships, and our spirits, we appeal to the Great Healer, our Lord and our God...
	Healing God, forgive us when, in seeking health and healing, we fail to come to you and seek your way through illness and need. Help us to learn to find you when we suffer and are in pain. And give us faith to trust the way in which you respond to our prayers.
C	We confess our sin, we seek your healing, and we pray, “Lord, have mercy.”
L	Healing God, forgive us for the parts that we play in the poor health of our bodies, minds, and relationships. Help us to adopt healthy patterns of diet and exercise, to internalize messages of hope and peace, and to work towards loving and positive connections with all people.

- LHealing God, forgive us those times when, in feeling distant from you, we have called into question your love for us and your desire for our lives. Help us to create disciplines of faith that ground us in a deepening relationship with you that guides us through all times of life, especially times of crisis.
- CWe confess our sin, we seek your healing, and we pray, “Lord, have mercy.”
- LHe, whose body bore the weight of our sin, intercedes on our behalf and becomes the means for our forgiveness. “By his stripes we are healed.” (Isaiah 53:5) In the name of Jesus Christ, and by his authority, I declare to you that your sin is forgiven in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen

Scripture Reading: Luke 17:11-19

Offering Prayer

Offering
The offering of Christ Lutheran Church supports the ministry and mission of our congregation. Guests and visitors should feel free not to give; the members of our congregation are given the responsibility and privilege to support God's work in our community through these gifts.

The Holy Communion Story

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread; Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen
