PARENTS,

As your child learns to read, we hope that one of the first things he reads is More. More is designed to help your young reader develop a time with God each day. It also makes a great tool for reading together with your child to foster conversations about God and faith. Here are some ideas for ways to connect with your child this month through More.

- This month's theme, Tell About Jesus, is all about telling other people about Jesus. Help your child think of ways to tell others about Jesus.
- Check the calendar out on page 28. Find some fun days to celebrate together. Plan an activity to celebrate with the family.
- Encourage your child to read the devotion for each day. Remind your child that everyone, no matter his age, can help other people know about Jesus!
- Read the Mission story on page 8. Christian workers in Africa want more people to know about Jesus. Pray that more people will want to help tell about Jesus.
- Introduce your child to John 14:6—Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Who Is the Holy Spirit?

“The one who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, will have streams of living water flow from deep within him.” He said this about the Spirit. Those who believed in Jesus were going to receive the Spirit, for the Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been glorified. John 7:38-39

To improve bounce, Ping-Pong® balls are filled with gas.

Have you ever heard of spirits? Usually people think spirits are scary. But did you know that there is a good Spirit? In fact, that Spirit is the best kind of Spirit you could ever interact with. When you decide to follow Jesus, He gives you the Holy Spirit to help you do the things that God wants you to do. So do not be afraid of God’s Spirit! He will help you!

 Dear God, Thank You for Your Spirit that comes to believers.

God Sent the Spirit

He poured out his Spirit on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior. Titus 3:6

Jesus' followers gathered in a house. A loud sound like a strong wind blew through the house. Flames appeared over the people's heads! The Holy Spirit came inside each of them. Then they began to speak different languages! Peter told the people that God had given them the Holy Spirit. God sent the Holy Spirit to help believers tell the good news of Jesus. That is what the disciples did then. That is what followers of Jesus do today.

 Dear God, Fill people with Your Spirit so they can tell others about Jesus.

Set Apart by God

As they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Acts 13:2

God spoke to the leaders of the Antioch church. He wanted Barnabas and Saul (also known as Paul) to go to other places to tell the good news of Jesus. Paul and Barnabas were missionaries. A missionary is a person who travels to another place to tell people about Jesus. God calls people today to be missionaries. Maybe God will ask you or someone you know to become a missionary.

 Dear God, Thank You for missionaries who tell others about Jesus.

Learning to Share the Gospel

He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs and gave them authority over unclean spirits. Mark 6:7

Hun lives in South Korea and teaches Christian students how to tell other people about Jesus. Hun sends the students to other countries in Asia. The students live in these other countries for six months at a time and tell people about Jesus. Then they return to South Korea. Hun says the students are very excited when they return. God wants all of His people to tell others about Him. You can tell others about Him right where you are.

In 1938 Jonathon DeLounge invented the beach ball in California.

 Dear God, Help Hun and other teachers teach students to share the gospel.

ON MISSION IN AFRICA

The Bible is God's Word. In It, we can learn the right things to do, and we can learn how much God has loved us from the beginning of time. Many people in Africa know very little about Jesus and the Bible. They will not know the truth unless someone goes to tell them.

Christian workers in unreached regions want more people to hear about Jesus. The workers do three things: learn a new language, live among the people in their culture, and are ready to talk about Jesus any time.

Pray that God will prepare the hearts and minds of people in Africa to hear the truth about Him. Thank God for the new believers in Africa. Ask Him to give those believers the courage to share Jesus with others.

Maybe a Missionary

In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should earn their living by the gospel. 1 Corinthians 9:14

“We have been learning about missions at church,” Sophia told Dad. “I think I may want to be a missionary. Did you know that there are over 3,000 different people groups that need to hear about Jesus? I think I could help tell some of those people about Him.”

Dad smiled and said, “Keep thinking and praying. God will help you know if He wants you to be a missionary.”

 Dear God, Call missionaries and send them around the world so every people group can hear the good news about Jesus.

May Memory Verses

Use the following activity to learn each of the memory verses for May.

1. Find each verse in a Bible.
2. Write each verse and reference on a separate piece of construction paper.
3. Cut apart each word.
4. Practice putting the verse in the correct order to help you memorize each verse and reference.

Acts 13:2

Acts 1:8

John 17:3

Romans 8:28

Galatians 2:20

Beautiful Feet

And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news. Romans 10:15

Do you know someone with beautiful feet? The Bible says some feet are beautiful because they carry the good news to others. What is the good news? Jesus is the Savior who died for people's sins and rose again. If people in your church are telling the good news of Jesus, they have beautiful feet. If your church helps missionaries tell others about Jesus, they are helping people with beautiful feet.

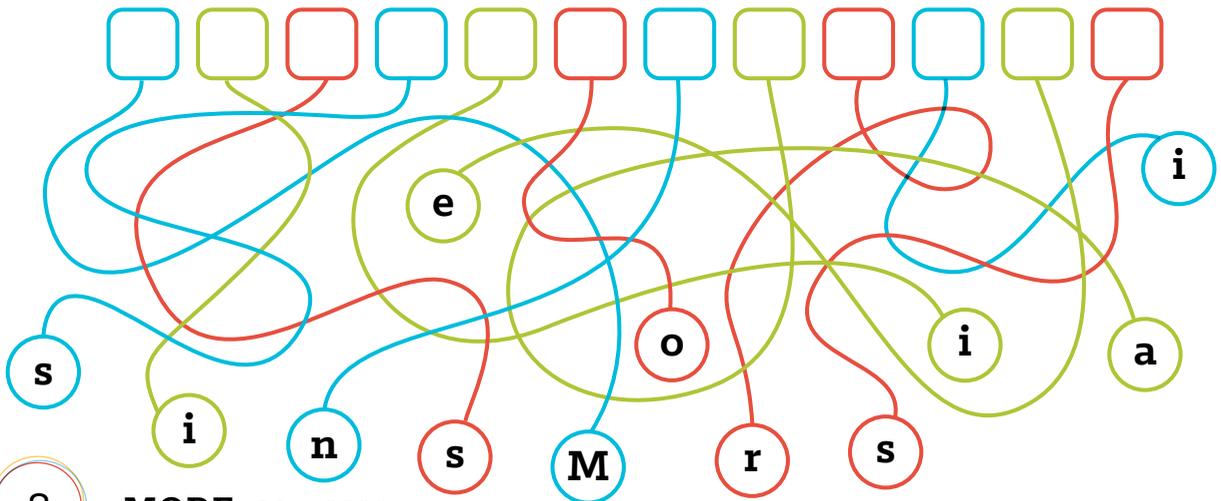

A soccer ball has 32 panels. Each panel represents one of the 32 countries in Europe.

 Dear God, Help people tell Your good news in my community and around the world.

Follow the Lines

To solve the puzzle, follow each line to a letter. Then write that letter in the blank.

_____ are called by God to tell another group of people about Jesus.

Homework

This good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. *Matthew 24:14

Aiden asked his brother for homework help. “I have to mark if these names are names of countries or not. Mrs. Kyle said we had to use a globe or map.”

Benjamin helped Aiden find a map online. They looked at the list of countries. Aiden circled the names of the countries. “Brazil!” said Aiden. “Mrs. Kyle said her friend lives in Brazil. He is a missionary there.”

“People in Brazil need to hear the good news of Jesus,” Benjamin said.

 Dear God, Protect people all over the world as they proclaim the gospel.

A Temple

Don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God? You are not your own. *1 Corinthians 6:19

“Emma, do not forget your pads,” Ethan called.

Emma rolled the wheels of her skateboard with her hand. “I am just going down the sidewalk. Besides, I do not care if I fall and get hurt. It is my body.”

Ethan said, “That is not exactly true. You are a Christian. The Holy Spirit lives in you. Your body belongs to God.”

Ethan handed the knee pads and elbow pads to Emma, and she slid them on. “Thanks,” she said. “I guess I do not want to damage the temple.”

 Dear God, Help me remember to respect and care for my body.

Cannot Stop Telling

Peter and John answered them, “Whether it’s right in the sight of God for us to listen to you rather than to God, you decide; for we are unable to stop speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

Acts 4:19-20

Often, exciting news will just come right out of a person’s mouth. “I just cannot wait! Listen to this!” a person may say. The disciples Peter and John could not stop telling others what they had seen and heard from Jesus. They had to tell about His love. All Christians should be excited and ready to tell others what they know about Jesus.

 Dear God, Lead my church and my family to continue to tell what we have seen and heard about Jesus.

What Can You Do?

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. Acts 1:8

How can kids make a difference for Jesus? You can pray for missionaries in the United States and around the world. You can give money to help your church tell others about Jesus. You can go on a mission trip with your family or church or help with a mission project in your town. If you are a Christian, you can be a witness and help tell the world about Jesus.

 Dear God, Show me how I can pray, give, and go to be a witness for You.

Knowing the Future

Because no prophecy ever came by the will of man; instead, men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit. 2 Peter 1:21

Kaden said, "I saw a video of a guy online who can predict the future."

"How does he do that?" Mom asked.

Kaden said, "He is very smart. He made a special computer program. You send him a question, and he will answer it."

"That is very nice of him," Mom said.

"Well," Kaden said, "you also have to send him some money."

Mom said, "Kaden, no man or computer can know the future. Only God knows."

 Dear God, Help me read Your Word, listen to You, and trust You for the future.

Abram Had Faith

Now without faith it is impossible to please God, since the one who draws near to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. Hebrews 11:6

The Bible tells about a man of faith named Abram. God told Abram to leave his home but did not tell him where to go. Abram trusted and followed God. Later, God told Abram that his family would be big. Abram had no children, and he and his wife were old. But he believed God. Abram's wife had a baby when she was 90 years old! Abram believed and trusted God.

 Dear God, Help me and my family believe Your words and trust in You in everything we do.

Power Source

As for me, however, I am filled with power by the Spirit of the LORD, with justice and courage, to proclaim to Jacob his rebellion and to Israel his sin. Micah 3:8

Car engines need gas and batteries to start the engine. Your body uses food, water, and air to make your muscles move and your brain think. Many tools and devices use batteries charged with electricity to make them work. Christians have a power source to do God's work. The Holy Spirit is the energy from God that helps Christians remember and gives them strength to do what God asks.

 Dear God, Thank You for giving your Spirit to believers so they will have power to follow You.

A Witness

We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him. Acts 5:32

“Why do you always talk about Jesus?” asked Zoey.

“Jesus said to be His witnesses,” Ava said.

Zoey said, “Witness? Like in a court?”

“Kind of,” Ava said. “A witness in court tells what he saw and heard. Christians tell what they have heard about Jesus. I could tell you what I have learned about Jesus from the Bible. And I could tell you how Jesus has helped me.”

“I would like to hear more about who Jesus is,” Zoey said.

 Dear God, Help me learn more about You and tell what I learn to others.

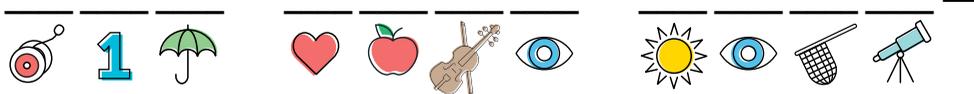

Football is a lot like the game of rugby. Footballs are shaped like rugby balls, only more pointy.

Hidden Bible Verse

This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God,

• John 17:3

Anointing

As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you don't need anyone to teach you. Instead, his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie; just as it has taught you, remain in him. 1 John 2:27

In the Bible, people were anointed with oil to honor them or for a task. Someone would pour a small amount of oil on the head of a person to anoint the person. The Bible also tells about another kind of anointing. This happens when the Spirit comes into a Christian's heart, showing that the Christian now has the task to follow God and show others His love.

There are exactly 108 stitches on a baseball.

 Dear God, Fill each believer in my church with Your Spirit.

Groupie

Below are places you can tell others about Jesus. Fit the words in the puzzle.

No Bible to Read?

Then they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them. Acts 2:4

What if you wanted to read the Bible but could not find one in your language? Over 7,000 languages are spoken or signed in the world. But no Bible exists for about 2,000 of those languages. Many other languages have only part of the Bible. Everyone needs to be able to read the Bible. More missionaries are needed to translate the Bible so that people can read for themselves what it says.

 Dear God, Help every person be able to read about Jesus in his own language.

Jesus Christ

This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and the one you have sent—Jesus Christ. John 17:3

In Spanish, His name is Jesucristo. People in Russia call Him Iisus Khristos. His name is uJesu Kristu in Zulu and Yexus Khetos in Hmong. In English people say Jesus Christ. Jesus is the only Son of God, sent by God to be the Savior. He died on a cross for sin, and He rose on the third day. Jesus is the only way to God. People of every land and language need the Savior. So call on His name—Jesus Christ, and worship Him.

 Dear God, Show me how to be a part of telling the world about Jesus.

On the Move

Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus—the great Shepherd of the sheep—through the blood of the everlasting covenant, equip you with everything good to do his will, working in us what is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. Hebrews 13:20-21

Before Ping-Pong® paddles, players used books to hit the ball.

Peter is a missionary to herdsmen who raise sheep and cattle in the wilderness. These families may move 11 times a year! They take down their houses, pack everything, and set up in a new place so their sheep can eat. Peter and local Christians help the families with food, warm clothes, and other needs. They tell the herdsmen about Jesus. Sometimes Peter must search to find where families live. They need to know about Jesus.

 Dear God, Lead the herdsmen to follow Jesus.

Circle at least 8 differences in the two groups below.

The Only God

Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. 1 Timothy 1:17

“Mom, I am confused,” said David. “This world religion book says that there are lots of different gods and they are mean.”

Mom said, “What does the Bible say?”

David thought about it and said, “There is only one God. The Bible says that God loves us and wants to know us.”

“That is true,” Mom said. “God loves us and will forgive when we say we are sorry for our sins. God is the only God, and He loves us and will help us if we follow Him.”

 Dear God, You alone are worthy of praise, and I praise You.

To play a game of jacks, players will toss a ball in the air and scoop up game pieces before the ball bounces.

Did you hear the joke about the fast pitch?

Nevermind. You just missed it.

Word List

You were shown these things so that you would know that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him. Deuteronomy 4:35

“Mrs. Arnold gave us some hard words to learn,” Mason said. “Omnipotent is one,” he said. “I looked it up. It means ‘someone who can do all things.’”

Jenny looked at Mason’s word list. “I know this one. Omnipresent means ‘to be everywhere at once.’ ”

She tried the next one. “Omnis..., omnis...”

“Omniscient,” said Mason. “It means ‘to know everything.’ Do you know someone who can do all things, knows all things, and is everywhere?”

“God!” they both said at the same time. “No one else is like God.”

 Dear God, I praise You because no one else is like You.

True or Not?

Yet for us there is one God, the Father. All things are from him, and we exist for him. And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ. All things are through him, and we exist through him. 1 Corinthians 8:6

Which sentences are true? Jesus walked on water. Jesus prayed for His friends. Jesus washed His disciples' feet. Jesus cooked breakfast. Jesus never sinned. All of them are true! Jesus is not like any other person. Jesus is God's Son. He is the Savior. Every person in your community and around the world needs to hear about Jesus.

The goal in a game of marbles is to knock the other player's marbles out of the circle and win the marbles.

Believe

You believe that God is one. Good! Even the demons believe—and they shudder.

James 2:19

Is it important to believe in God? Of course it is. But people can believe God is real and not love God. James wrote that even the demons believe that God is real and are afraid of God. But the demons do not follow God. They work against Him. God wants people to love Him and obey Him. That is more than just believing that He is real. People can trust Jesus as their Savior and follow God.

 Dear God, Show me how to trust You and love You more.

Promised

Speak up and present your case— yes, let them consult each other. Who predicted this long ago? Who announced it from ancient times? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other God but me, a righteous God and Savior; there is no one except me. Isaiah 45:21

“Do you believe that Jesus is God’s Son?” asked Lydia.

“Yes,” Nana said.

“How do you know?” Lydia said, looking confused.

“The entire Bible is about Jesus,” Nana said. “God promised He would send a Savior. God’s promise is in the first book of the Bible, Genesis. We read it many times in the rest of the Bible. In the Old Testament, God promised to send a Savior. Years later, Jesus was born.”

“Jesus is the One God promised!” said Lydia.

 Dear God, Thank You for sending Jesus, the promised Savior.

God in Control

We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. Romans 8:28

Some people think that when a person becomes a Christian, only good things happen to him. But that is not true. Christians get sick or might lose a game or get a bad grade in school. Everybody experiences good things and bad things. But Christians can trust God. God uses everything that happens for good, even if it seems bad. Hard times can help Christians learn more about what God wants. No matter what happens, God is in control.

 Dear God, When I have challenges, help me trust that You are in control.

Unwise Choice

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding; in all your ways know him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6

“What are you doing with Dad’s phone?” Isaac asked.

Bella pushed Isaac away. “I am going to text a new friend I met.”

“God does not want you to hide things from Dad,” Isaac said.

“It is fine,” Bella said.

Dad came in. “Where is my phone, Bella?” Bella sat silent. Dad said, “I saw you take it.”

Bella handed him the phone. “I just wanted to talk to my new friend.”

Dad said, “Texting people you do not know is not safe. But hiding the phone from me is even worse. God wants you to be honest with your parents and obey His commands.”

Dear God, Help me choose Your way and not my own way.

Storm Damage

When I am filled with cares, your comfort brings me joy. Psalms 94:19

In Greenville, Texas, a bad storm with strong winds blew into town. Highland Terrace Baptist Church decided to cancel their Wednesday night church activities so members could stay out of the storm. The storm hit the church and the wind pulled off part of the roof. Parts of the roof hit other parts of the church, too. The pastor said they had prayed that God would be in control of the storm, keeping people safe. The storm did not hit the places where people live. God protected the people and sent others to help the church.

Dear God, Thank You for Your care and comfort.

Harmony

Now may the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, according to Christ Jesus.

Romans 15:5

The Bible says to live in harmony. Harmony is the sound when different musical notes blend together. When Christians trust God, everyone gets along well. If Christians act in selfish ways or do things that hurt others, they do not get along. People clash like music with wrong notes. Think about ways you can live in harmony with your family and your friends.

Lonely

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. *Matthew 5:4

Emily saw Samuel sitting at the edge of the playground, far away from everyone else. She walked over to him.

“Are you okay, Samuel?” Emily asked.

Samuel shook his head and said, “No.” Emily sat down next to him. They were quiet for a minute.

“My dad left for war today,” Samuel said. “He will miss my birthday. He might not be back at Christmas,” Samuel sniffed a few times.

Emily said, “I understand why you are sad. Can I sit with you for a while?” Samuel nodded. Emily sat beside Samuel all during recess. She quietly prayed that God would help her friend.

Afraid

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but one of power, love, and sound judgment. 2 Timothy 1:7

Some people have very strong fears. Do you have any of these fears: fear of spiders, fear of clowns, fear of bugs and insects? We all have things that make us nervous or afraid. But the Bible says that God does not want us to be afraid. God gives power and strength to help His people love others and do His work for others. If you feel scared or upset, pray to God.

 Dear God, I praise You because You are a God of power and love, not fear.

During the early 1900s, bowling balls were made of wood. Later they were made of a heavy rubber.

LOL!

Why do bowling pins have such a hard life?

They're always getting knocked down.

Church Planter

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear. Instead, you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry out, “Abba, Father!”

Romans 8:15

Philip lives in St. Paul, Minnesota. He met many people from African countries who had moved to St. Paul. He started a church for the African people to tell them about Jesus. Khamis came to the church. He became a Christian and wanted to learn about preaching to others. He wanted to go back to his country and tell others about Jesus. So Philip’s church started a school to train Khamis and others. These people go back to countries in Africa to help tell about Jesus.

Dear God, Help Philip and his church tell more people about You.

Crucified

I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. Galatians 2:20

Jesus came to be the Savior. The Jewish leaders arrested Him. They took Jesus to the Roman leader and said that Jesus should die. Jesus was nailed to a cross and died. His followers took His body and put it in a cave tomb. On the third day, Jesus rose again. He is alive! He died for people’s sins. Those who follow Him have their sins forgiven. Christians live for Jesus because He died for them.

Dear God, I praise You for sending Your Son to die for my sins.
