

James: Living a Life of Genuine Faith Week 5

Last week we learned that genuine faith is actively obedient to the Word. We examined the importance of not merely listening to the Word, but being changed by it. We learned that those who act on God's Word will be blessed in what they do, and we examined the difference between true and false religion.

This week James expands our understanding of genuine faith by examining the way we treat those around us. Read through the entire book of James. Then re-read James 2:1-13. Read it in the ESV and NIV before you begin to answer the questions.

Look back at question 18 in your homework from last week.

1. What three tests of true religion did James give in 1:26-27?

2.

3.

2. Which one does he expand on in 2:1-13?

Now look at James 2:1-7.

3. In 2:1, how does James describe Jesus? "the _____ of _____." How does this particular title fit with what James is going to discuss in 2:1-13?

4. What does it mean to show favoritism or partiality? What are some ways favoritism can occur in the church?

5. In 2:2-4, how were those James addresses discriminating between rich and poor? What clues did they focus on? Are these clues always reliable? Why or why not?

6. Based on the context of James's comments, do you think the early church consisted mostly of wealthy people or poor people? Explain how you reached your answer. Look up Acts 2:45 to see how you did.

7. What motivates a person or group to treat rich people better than poor ones?

8. Apply: Describe a time you were treated with positive favoritism. How did it feel?

Describe a time you were treated with negative discrimination. How did it feel?

Why is it so important for believers not to discriminate among those who enter the doors of our churches?

9. What segment of the population is James most likely referring to in 2:6-7? Who was most likely oppressing and blaspheming against early Jewish Christians? Choose one:

- poor Jews - poor gentiles - wealthy Jews - wealthy gentiles

10. Based on your knowledge of Scripture, to whom did Jesus show favoritism?

_____ the scribes and Pharisees _____ rulers _____ the sick _____ poor people _____ children _____ “sinners and tax collectors” _____ rich people _____ John the Baptist _____ the disciples _____ Mary, Joseph, and his family _____ other _____

11. Apply: Is there anyone to whom you show favoritism? Why have you singled out that person for your favor? How does showing favoritism toward them damage your ability to love them as you should?

Now look at James 2:8-13.

12. In 2:8, what is the “royal law”? Why is it royal? Can you find another place in Scripture where it occurs?

13. How do the following excerpts from Old Testament law confirm the truth of 2:9?

Deut 1:17

Deut 16:19

What do verses 2:10-11 tell us about being a lawbreaker? Does it seem fair to you? Why or why not?

15. Look up Romans 13:8-10. How do Paul’s words reinforce the principles in 2:9-11?

16. Apply: How should the idea that we will be “judged under the Law of liberty” impact our words and actions? List some specific examples for each area below:

In our home

In our place of work

In our church

In our community

17. Read Matthew 6:14-15 and compare it to 2:13. Why do you think our treatment of others affects God's treatment of us?

Look up judge (verb) and mercy in the dictionary and write definitions or synonyms for them below that best fit the way they are used in James 2:12-13:

judge:

mercy:

Now, based on your definitions, rewrite 2:12-13 in your own words:

18. Apply: Is there a person in your life to whom you need to extend mercy instead of judgment? What is holding you back from doing so?

19. Glance back though 2:1-13 and try to summarize what James says in into one sentence.

WRAP-UP

What aspect of God's character has this week's passage of James shown you more clearly?

Fill in the following statement:

Knowing that God is _____ shows me that I am _____.

What one step can you take this week to better live in light of this truth?

Close in prayer. Praise God for His son, Jesus Christ, the Lord of Glory. Ask God to show you how discrimination has touched your relationships. Ask Him to reveal to you where you have sought to glorify yourself by glorifying others. Ask Him to reveal to you where you have sought to elevate yourself by devaluing others. Thank Him that mercy has triumphed over judgment in His dealings with you. Ask Him to help you demonstrate mercy as it has been shown to you.
