Ephesians 1:15-23

15 For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, <sup>16</sup> I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, <sup>17</sup> that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, <sup>18</sup> having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup> and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might <sup>20</sup> that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup> far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. <sup>22</sup> And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup> which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

1. What two qualities is Paul thankful for about the Ephesians? Think about PBCWG. What would you be thankful for about your church?
2. When did you become a Christian? see v. 18 "Having the eyes of your heart enlightened". Describe it to your group. (or if you are not a Christian, where are you in your journey?)
3. Where are you in terms of growing as a Christian? Do others see growth in you? How would you describe the way you grow as a Christian?
4. Think through some of the implications of what God did through Christ in verses 20-23. How do they affect how you might live your life in the next few days or weeks?
