What is His response?

- read 10:1-4, What are the core issues here?
What is the future for those who perpetrate such things?

- read 5-11, To whom is God speaking now?
Though God called them out to be a rod of judgment of northern kingdom Israel he is fiercely angry with them – why do you think this is?

- read 12-19, What will God’s judgment be upon Assyria for her unbridled arrogance and brutality?
Does anyone know what happened when Assyria invaded Judah & ultimate surrounded Jerusalem?

- read 20-27, What is the major theme in this portion of text? How far will Assyria be allowed to go?
What is the promise God gives to his people – in this case people of the Northern Kingdom?

- read 28-34, Isaiah traces Assyria’s path of advancement and destruction. But where does it end and what will God do?

- end your time considering:
  - > what are the “Assyrias” in your life? Threats / burdens / besetting sins / areas of pain?
  - > to what / to where / to whom are you looking for relief and deliverance?
  - > what is the Spirit saying to you in the midst of these things?

- how do desire to grow in trusting the Lord and finding refuge & healing in Him?

- take time to pray over these things together – for yourself and for each other
