As your reader proceeds, observe how Job speaks in each of these chapters through this high poetry. Try to discern and make note of what you see as Job's major concerns and arguments.

Looking at the text through the lens of what we learned in chapters 1 & 2, and also through the lens of the Gospel, where and how do you think Job's thinking and theology is sound? Where not so much?

You may or may not land on any firm conclusions in your study time together. That's OK!

Either way, ask the Lord to give you new insight and wisdom, and to feed you through his Spirit. There is great benefit in carefully considering Scripture even when you cannot sort out all the details and concepts.
