

Senior Pastor ~ Norman Sullivan

"Passion" ~ January 17, 2021

Back ground Verses: 1 Samuel 13:10-15; Proverbs 28:13; 4:23;

1 Samuel 16:1-13; 17:26-37

There was a void in _____ leadership.

Saul offers _____ and plays the _____-game.

The _____ that was endearing to God was that he was "a man after God's own heart."

God is looking for people that _____ to His _____.

God sought to set up a king that would be so _____ to Him that in reality _____ would still be ruling.

A man who is good at making _____ is rarely _____ for anything else.

_____ God and _____ people.

It is out of the _____ of _____ the well spring of life flows.

It is not until he is _____ that we see what _____ already saw in him.

Any of these men on the battle front could have been _____ for God, and took up for the _____ of God... but they didn't.

God _____ the called with _____ experiences.

God _____ our _____.

Saul didn't have a _____ for what God did. He made _____.

God asks us to do _____ things that turn out simply _____, because we obeyed.

A country in crisis needs a bunch of people who are people after _____ own _____.

The issue is we need to corral that _____ and be _____ for what _____ God's heart.