

Senior Pastor ~ Norman Sullivan

“Trust” ~ January 10, 2021

Back ground Verses: Genesis 11:1-9; 12:1-4; 22; Acts 7:2-5;

Hebrews 11:8-10; Mark 9:19-25

The lack of _____ is the _____ of broken relationships.

God did a major _____ with the family of _____.

Their collective action of building a tower (doing their own thing) showed _____ in _____.

We think we deserve to do whatever we _____, because of _____.

You’ll do whatever when you _____ the _____ of the one making the promise.

We know that he _____ God, because he _____.

It is only the _____ of the unknown when you don’t really _____ the one who told you to go.

At the end of the day, all Abram ever did in the realm of all this was say, “_____” by _____ he was told to go.

The relationship between man and God is built when we _____ and _____.

The same _____ that _____ us through this can help us through that.

In Genesis 22 God _____ the faith of Abraham like no man has ever been _____.

That kind of trust is only possible, because he _____.

The relationship between God and Abraham had grown to the point of _____ trust...by _____.

Note the bond of trust between the two: Abraham does not _____, nor does God offer an _____.

It takes _____ to build _____.