What is the difference between just quoting the promises of God and living out the promises of God? The only way to live out the promises of God is through the power of His Holy Spirit. Let's face it, we all are challenged in our faith walk. We experience times of disappointment, sickness, loss, temptations, and challenges. How we process these things determines whether we are exalting the name of Jesus or becoming self-focused and stuck in self-pity, blame, fear, anger and unforgiveness. "Let God's promises shine on your problems." - Corrie Ten Boom

God promises us hope, protection, guidance, purpose and most importantly forgiveness and eternal life through Jesus Christ. Every promise of God reveals His love and is a window into the heart of the Ever-Present, Sovereign, Almighty God who loves you very much.

Today, let's look at a few of God's promises together: Here is a link that will take you to an online Bible where you can look up the following scriptures: <https://www.biblegateway.com/>

Deuteronomy 31:8

Matthew 28:18-20

2 Corinthians 1:20-22

Psalms 91

John 3:16

Philippians 4:6-7

Matthew 6: 31-34

John 15:7-8

1 John 1:9

Pray:

Lord Jesus, teach me to keep my eyes centered on You and Your promises rather than on myself and my anxieties and problems. Help me to allow You to give me peace of heart and mind today by surrendering to your will and not my own. Empower me to live out my trust in your promises today so that I can be light and salt to others around me. In Jesus Name – Amen.

Think:

I can always trust God to keep His word.
