Holy Trinity Sunday

- Today is Holy Trinity Sunday.
- Trinity means three.
- The Trinity is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

This is one symbol for the Trinity, the three in one. Color it in! Then practice the Trinity symbol by tracing the gray lines.

Hooray for our awesome God! God made you and me and everything else!

Draw something in each box that helps you think about God

THE FATHER

JESUS THE SON

THE HOLY SPIRIT

REMEMBER: Even though there are three parts of God, God is really one. God is the three-in-one.

Finding Threes

Since the Trinity means three, your goal in worship today is to find sets of three. Below is the list you need to complete. Have each person write their initials on the line.

Three people who have the same first name:

Three people who work in a hospital or doctor's office:

Three people who like to sing:

Three people who have grandchildren:

Three people who have summer birthdays:

Holy Trinity Sunday

- Today is Holy Trinity Sunday.
- Today is the first Sunday after the Day of Pentecost.
- On this Sunday we celebrate the Trinity, the three in one!

Three in One

Below is the symbol for the Trinity. Choose one color for the Father, one color for Jesus, and one color for the Holy Spirit. Then color in the center section with all three colors. This new color represents God as the Trinity.

Today's memory verse comes from Psalm 8. Psalms are poems of praise and thanksgiving. The memory verse for today is "O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!" (Psalm 8:1).

Can you write your own Psalm? What are you thankful for? Why is God so wonderful? Write your Psalm poem here:
