Jethro Helped Moses

Exodus 18

STORY POINT: MOSES NEEDED HELP TO LEAD GOD'S PEOPLE.

Moses' father-in-law, Jethro had heard about the Israelites' escape from Egypt. Moses' wife and sons were staying with Jethro, and they all came to the wilderness to see Moses.

Moses hurried out to meet them. Moses told Jethro about everything God had done for the Israelites. Jethro praised God for all the good things He had done.

The next day, Moses sat down to judge the people. The people stood around all day and waited for Moses to listen to their case.

"This is not good," Jethro said. "This job is too big for one person." Jethro gave Moses some advice: "You can be the person who speaks to God for the Israelites. Teach the people God's laws. But choose trustworthy men from all the people to lead smaller groups of people. They can judge the people's less important cases and bring the most important ones to you."

Moses took Jethro's advice. Then Jethro returned to his own land.

Christ Connection: Moses needed others to help him lead God's people and teach them God's laws. God does not want believers to follow Jesus alone. He gives us brothers and sisters of faith who can help us love God, obey God, and tell others about Him.
