Chapter Three: Life Over God

1. How did you feel when you first read this chapter? Angry? Uncomfortable? Fine? Why? Discuss your thoughts

2. When we find ourselves in the posture of "Life Over God" we are seeking to "self-rule" or make everything "about us." How prevalent do you think this is in our western culture? Can you share some examples?

3. In one of the questions, the author asks us "What role does the Bible plays in our life"? While reading the Word of God, do you spend more time seeking to discover who God is, or simply looking for principles to follow for your life and how it all applies to you? How do the two relate and complement each other? Can you, and should you, do both?

4. What place do you think pride has in this particular posture? Explain your answer.

5. The author claims you can have a "Christian nation, a Christian marriage, or be a Christian parent" without Christ actually being present. What do you think he means? Do you agree?

6. Spend some time praying and pondering the thoughts that were presented in this chapter. Allow the Holy Spirit to search your heart and see if you are living Over God in any way.
