

Using Your Bank's Bill Pay Feature to Give

The following instructions are adapted from this site: https://www.swiftchurch.org/_bill_pay__through_your_bank. They are edited to include BCLR's information.

Even though your donation to BCLR isn't technically a "bill," you can still set it up to have your bank send one-time or recurring gifts to the church. Here are some guidelines to help you get this set up with your bank:

- Follow the directions on your bank's website to set up a new bill or payee.
- If given a choice, choose to pay a company rather than a person.
- In the space for "company name," enter: Bible Church of Little Rock
- In the space for "company address," enter:
19111 Cantrell Rd
Little Rock, AR 72223
- In the space for "company phone number," enter: 501-227-4980.
- In the space for "account number," enter your first initial and your last name; for example: JDOE

Important Notes:

Donations are designated for the general fund by default. If you wish to designate all or a portion of your donation to another fund (e.g. the mission fund), you can type instructions in the "note" section when setting up the payment.

After you have set up BCLR as a biller, it is added to your list of bills or payees and you can select it at any time and enter a payment amount and a payment date. You will also have the option of setting up automatic or recurring payments.

Bill pay is usually a free service of your checking account, but some banks charge a monthly fee for their bill-pay service that can be waived depending on account balance, etc.

One advantage of using online bill pay through your bank is that the church is not charged any fees for receiving a donation through your bank's bill payment service.
