ORDINATION OF DANIEL ANTHONY HEATH

Ordination is an act of the whole church recognizing the movement of the Holy Spirit in setting apart a person to ordered ministry. It reflects a determination that God is indeed calling and has prepared this person to serve.

Daniel served as director of contemporary worship and arts for eight years before honoring God’s call to study as a Presidential Scholar at Princeton.

While at Covenant, Daniel helped to launch two new worship services, each with a unique balance of innovation and tradition.

Though music was his primary calling, Daniel also formed a worship arts team to create visuals and installations for Sunday services and liturgical seasons.

Daniel and his wife, Katrina, have two sons: Jackson and Jordan.

Prayerfully hand-sewn by a member of the Contemporary Worship Team, Daniel’s ordination stole includes signatures and hand prints from loving members of the Covenant congregation. The stole represents the grateful imprint and blessing of this congregation in support and love for the journey ahead.

In Need of Healing Prayer
Susan Hickok, Eddie Springs

We rely on members of the congregation, friends and relatives to keep us informed of hospitalizations, births and deaths. Please call the church office at 704-333-9071 or email Michelle Williamson (michelle.williamson@covenantpresby.org). During this time of anxiety and isolation, Covenant pastors are praying by name for households in the congregation. Each of the five ministers will pray for 10 households per day. Please know that we will continuously lift you in prayer throughout the days to come.

Prayer requests may be submitted on your online Worship Response Card, on the web site at Connect and Grow -> Congregational Care or to Rev. Katherine Kerr (katherine.kerr@covenantpresby.org).
A pastor remains on call for emergency situations (death, sudden hospitalizations, etc.). Please call 704-333-9071 and select the pastor-on-call option.

Covenant Presbyterian is a dynamic Christian community that gladly invites all people into a transformational experience of faith, boldly proclaims the gospel, bravely works toward a whole and just world, and passionately nurtures discipleship.
