Growth Questions

These questions are to help you apply the weekend's message to your life and to help others – like those in a Growth Group – do the same. Can being honest and vulnerable about your life be intimidating? Is it OK to struggle and have real questions? The answer to both questions is “Yes,” and that is why we have Growth Groups. A Growth Group is meant to be a safe place where we help people know, love and serve Jesus better. If you're not in one, fill out a Connect Card & drop it in a giving box. If you missed this or any message, you view it on our website or our YouTube page.

1. In the face of “evangelical” scholarship claiming a different author to a Bible book, what is the role of the Christian in believing what men say about the Bible versus what the Bible claims about itself?
2. Why would Peter pick an “exclusive” and yet “exhaustive” audience for this book?
3. How does verse 2 say that grace and peace are multiplied to the reader, and what are the implications of that statement?
4. Write out a prayer praising God for what He has taught you from this passage
